7. PRIVACY PROTECTION OF INFORMATION

'We' in this privacy consent & notification refers Community First Credit Union Ltd as lender of record.

Privacy consent & notification

We may collect, use, hold & disclose personal & credit information about you for the purposes of arranging or providing credit to you, managing credit, direct marketing of products & services by us, & managing our relationship with you.

We may share your personal information with the financial institution partnering with us in the provision of the Amigo credit card.

You may gain access to this personal & credit information by contacting us or any of those parties listed at the bottom of this consent & notification. A copy of our privacy policy can be accessed at <http://www.communityfirst.com.au/Privacy>. It contains information on how you may access or seek correction of your personal & credit information, and information about our complaints process.

Credit information includes the type & amount of credit, repayment history information, default information (including overdue payments), & court information. Personal information includes any information from which your identity is apparent.

Consumer & commercial credit information

We may collect, use, hold, and disclose commercial & consumer credit information about you to assess an application for consumer or commercial credit & manage credit.

Exchange information with credit providers

We may seek & disclose personal & credit information about you from or to another credit provider for the purposes of assessing your creditworthiness, credit standing, & credit history or credit capacity.

Exchange information with guarantors

We may seek & disclose personal & credit information about you from or to any person who proposes to guarantee or has guaranteed repayment of any credit provided to you.

Provide information to a credit reporting body

We may seek & disclose credit information from or to a credit reporting body to assess your application for credit, manage your credit or for the purposes of pre-screening credit offers.

Credit reporting bodies must maintain a confidential list of individuals who have opted out of their information being used in pre-screening. To opt-out of credit pre-screening, contact the credit reporting body, using the contact details on their websites, referred to below.

You can also ask a credit reporting body not to use or disclose your personal information for a period if you believe on reasonable grounds that you have been or are likely to be a victim of fraud, including identity fraud.

Exchange information with advisers, originators, mortgage insurers & dispute resolution

We may disclose personal & credit information to:

- a mortgage insurer or trade insurer to assess the risk of providing mortgage insurance or assess the risk of default & in connection with any default by you;
- mortgage brokers, mortgage originators, mortgage managers to assess an application for credit or manage credit;
- financial consultants, accountants, lawyers, & advisers acting in connection with any financing provided (or proposed to be provided) to you;
- any industry body, tribunal, court or otherwise in connection with any complaint or dispute regarding the approval or management of your credit;
- another person in connection with funding financial accommodation by means of a securitisation arrangement or other proposed dealing with your credit;
- any person where we are required by law to do so or organisations involved in providing credit to you, any associate, related entity or contractor of ours (including for example stationery printing houses, lawyers, accountants, recoveries firm) or any person considering acquiring an interest in our business or assets.

Overseas disclosures

We may disclose your personal information overseas. The countries where we are likely to disclose your personal information too include New Zealand & United Kingdom. However, if we do disclose this information outside Australia, we will do so on the basis that the information will be used only for the purposes set out in this document.

Customer identification

We may disclose personal information about you to an organisation providing verification, including on-line verification of your identity, including for the purposes of the Anti-Money Laundering & Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) or any other purpose.

Customer identification by credit reporting body

We may verify your identity using information held by a credit reporting body (CRB). To do this we may disclose personal information such as your name, date of birth, & address to the CRB to obtain an assessment of whether that personal information matches information held by the CRB. The CRB may give us a report on that assessment & to do so may use personal information about you & other individuals in their files. Alternative means of verifying your identity are available on request. If we are unable to verify your identity using information held by a CRB we will provide you with a notice to this effect & give you the opportunity to contact the CRB to update your information held by them or verify your identity using an alternative method acceptable to us.

Please tick the box if you agree to us verifying your identity using a credit reporting body.

If you do not provide personal information, we may be unable to provide credit.

CRB means VEDA who can be contacted and a copy of their privacy policy accessed on www.mycreditfile.com.au.
